Notice

Sub: Advisory regarding fraudulent internship offers in the name of "PMEC Internship"

It has been brought to the notice of the College that some students are receiving phone calls, WhatsApp messages and Google Form links offering internships in the name of "PMEC Internship." It has also been observed that a WhatsApp group has been created in this regard, and some students of PMEC have joined the said group.

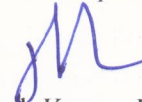

Students are hereby informed that such internship offers and communications have not been authorized or approved by Parala Maharaja Engineering College. Students are therefore advised to treat such communications as fraudulent/unauthorized and not to join such groups, submit personal information, fill up any forms, share documents, or make any payment in connection with such offers.

All students are strictly advised to follow the instructions given below:

1. Do not respond to any phone call, WhatsApp message, Google Form, or other communication offering an internship in the name of "PMEC Internship" unless it has been officially verified by the College.
2. Do not share personal, academic, bank, Aadhaar, identity or other confidential information through such links or forms.
3. Before applying for or accepting any internship, students must verify the authenticity of the industry/organization and obtain confirmation from the Dean, SRIC (Sponsored Research & Industrial Consultancy), PMEC.
4. All internship-related processes/communications shall be duly verified by the Dean, SRIC before students proceed with the internship.
5. Students are advised to rely only on official College notices, the College website/portal and communications issued through authorized College channels.

Students are requested to exercise utmost caution and ensure that no one misuses the name of Parala Maharaja Engineering College for unauthorized or fraudulent internship activities.

This notice may be treated as important and mandatory for strict compliance.
